At the Academy.

The fall term will open on Tuesday, September 5, at 9 a. m. The corps of instructors will be the same as that of last year, with one exception. Mr. Flint, who for the past two years, has had charge of the science department, has taken up special science work at Yale College, his alma mater. His successor, Brainerd Dyer, is a graduate of Amherst College. He brings to his work in the Academy preparation of a very high order in his department. He brings also, from those with whom he has been associated, emphatic endorsement as to his possession of qualities designed to insure attractive, forceful teaching.

Lecture Course Plans.

The lecture course committee have engaged three more attractions for next season's course. Rev. T. P. Frost of Evanston, Ill., the former pastor of Grace Methodist church, will give a lecture, Durno, the magician, who delighted our audience a few years ago, has been secured and Sousa and his band will come here sometime in April. The band will be included in such an expense that it will be included in the course as an extra entertainment, full particulars will be announced later.

Alphonse Gaudet, the shoemaker, has left town, and his shop on Eastern avenue is now occupied by John Lattin, the barber, who was formerly located in the adjoining building.

Business Changes.

Carl M. Howe has bought out the market of Roy Brothers in the Citizens block and took possession Monday morning. Mr. Howe still retains Peter King, the well-known meat cutter and is deserving of a good trade.

L. W. Pratt of West Burke has opened a harness shop in the vacant store on Railroad street beyond Stiles store.

A. J. Roy, who has occupied the barber shop under the St. Johnsbury House, has given up the rooms there and entered the employ of Piche & Lamontagne on Railroad street.

Howe's Moving Pictures.

A London newspaper tells of the enterprise of Lyman H. Howe in securing the exclusive rights to the most valuable collection of pictures ever taken. They were taken inside the firing line at Port Arthur, during the siege and surrender of that very important place some months back. These pictures were purchased at an immense sum of money but Mr. Howe wishes to demonstrate that if the public wishes to see the latest and best things in the moving picture line they must wait for him. This series of pictures includes pictures of the siege and surrender of Port Arthur, life among the soldiers in the far East and other interesting views.

Besides these views Mr. Howe has many others as important and interesting. This will be by far the best moving picture entertainment ever given in St. Johnsbury and the people of the town are very fortunate in the opportunity they are to have.

This entertainment is to be given under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A., on Wednesday evening, Sept. 20, at Music Hall. This is fair week and the hall should again be crowded, more so than last year. See add for prices etc.
